10. ELECTION AND TENURE OF OFFICE OF BOARD MEMBERS

- (a) Board members shall be elected by the members of the Association.
  - (i) Such Board members shall be elected by the members of the Association by Annual or Extraordinary Elections at a General Meeting.
  - (ii) Election procedures shall be as determined by the Board from time to time.
  - (iii) Such Board members shall ordinarily hold office for a period of three years from the date of their election to the Board. One third only of the Board members elected under this provision shall retire in any one year, so that a system of rotation of members shall apply. Where in any year more than one third of such Board members shall have completed their three year term, those to retire shall (unless they agree among themselves) be determined by ballot.
  - (iv) A retiring Board member is eligible for re-election for another three year term.
  - (v) Casual vacancies may be filled by an Annual or Extraordinary Election at a General Meeting, in which case the Board member elected at such election shall hold office until the Board member's predecessor or predecessors in office would have completed three years in office.
  - (vi) A Board member elected by the members of the Association may not serve more than three consecutive terms.
- (b) Board members nominated by the Board.
  - (i) Board members to be appointed under clause 7(d)(iii) may be appointed by Simple Resolution. The Board shall stipulate the term of the appointment at the time of the appointment.
  - (ii) A Board member appointed by nomination by the Board may not serve more than three consecutive terms.
- (c) Board member nominated by the Principal.
  - (i) The appointment of a Board member nominated by the Principal under clause 7(d)(iv) shall be subject to approval by Simple Resolution of the Board.
  - (ii) After two consecutive years of being appointed by nomination by the Principal, nomination of a Board member by the Principal shall be subject to ratification by subsequent Annual General Meetings.

11. TERMINATION OF OFFICE OF BOARD MEMBERS

The office of a member of the Board shall be vacated:

- (a) upon the termination of the period of office for which the Board member was elected or appointed;
- (b) in the case of a nominated Board member appointed under clause 10(b) or 10(c) by Simple Resolution of the Board;
- (c) upon written resignation of the Board member concerned;
- (d) if the Board member is absent from meetings of the Board for more than three consecutive (3) months without the consent of the Board by Simple Resolution; or
- (e) if the Board member be removed from office under clause 15.

12. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP OF THE ASSOCIATION

A person ceases to be a member of the Association if that person:

- (a) resigns; or
- (b) ceases to be eligible for membership under clause 6; or
- (c) does not pay the annual membership dues within 3 months of being informed that they are due and payable; or
- (d) is expelled from membership by the Board under Clause 15.

13. MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

- (a) A General Meeting of the Association may be attended by any member of the Association.
- (b) The Annual General Meeting of the Association shall be held each year at such time and place as the Board may determine, provided that no more than 15 months may elapse between one Annual General Meeting and the next, and no more than 6 months has elapsed since the end of the Association's previous financial year.
- (c) An Annual Election of members' representatives on the Board shall be held at least annually at a General Meeting.
- (d) At least 21 days' written notice of the time and place of and Agenda for any General Meeting shall be given by the Secretary to all members of the Association.
- (e) Any member of the Association wishing to bring forward any Special Business at the Annual General Meeting shall give 14 days' notice in writing to the Secretary specifying the nature of the Special Business.
- (f) At the sole discretion of the Chair of a meeting of members of the Association, that meeting may transact General Business without such notice.
- (g) Special General Meetings -
  - (i) A Special General Meeting may be called at any time by direction of the Board.

As altered by resolution at the Annual General Meeting held on 30th April 2019

- (ii) A Special General Meeting may be requisitioned by notice to the Secretary signed by at least 20% of the members of the Association specifying the business to be discussed at such a meeting. The Secretary shall call the meeting within 14 days after receipt of the requisition.
- (iii) Subject to clause 13(e) the Secretary shall send notice of any Special General Meeting to all members of the Association at least 7 days before the date of the meeting. The notice of the meeting shall specify the form of an Agenda of the matter to be discussed.
- (iv) No business may be transacted at any Special General Meeting unless notice has been given in accordance with paragraph 13(g)(iii).
- (h) Where any Special Business is to be conducted at a General Meeting, at least 7 days' notice of the nature of that business in the form of an Agenda shall be given by the Secretary to all members of the Association.
- (i) A quorum for a General Meeting shall be 15 members of the Association.
- (j) No business is to be conducted at a General Meeting unless a quorum is present.
- (k) Any General Meeting at which a quorum is not present may be adjourned by the members present to such day in any subsequent month as they may appoint.
- (l) Voting at a General Meeting shall be by Simple Resolution.

14. MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

- (a) The Board may meet for the dispatch of business at any time but not less frequently than every 12 weeks and may otherwise regulate its meetings as it deems fit, save that:
  - (i) at least 24 hours' notice shall be given by the Secretary to each Board member of any Board meeting;
  - (ii) at least 24 hours' notice shall be given by the Secretary to each Board member of the general nature of that business in the form of an Agenda.
  - (iii) a quorum at any Board meeting shall be half the total number of Board members.
- (b) Any meeting at which a quorum is not present may be adjourned by the Board members present to such day in any subsequent month as they may appoint.
- (c) A Board member who has a material personal interest in a matter being considered at a Board meeting must, as soon as the Board member becomes aware of the interest, disclose the nature and extent of the interest to the Board and the details of the material personal interest must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which the disclosure was made and the Board member and must not be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting or vote on the matter.

- (d) A vote may take place by the Board members present indicating their agreement or disagreement or by a show of hands, unless the Board decides that a secret ballot is needed to determine a particular question. If a secret ballot is needed, the Chair must decide how the ballot is to be conducted.
- (e) A Board member must not publish, or cause to be published, any statement about the business conducted by the Board at a meeting unless —
  - (i) the Board member has been authorised to do so at a meeting; and
  - (ii) the authority given to the Board member has been recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it was given.
- (f) The Board may at its sole discretion invite individuals to Board meetings to offer advice or to assist in any Board business or for any other reason. Such invitees shall not have voting rights at Board meetings, and the Board may withdraw such invitations at any time at its sole discretion.

14A. GENERAL PROCEDURE AT MEETINGS

- (a) The Secretary, or person authorised by the Board from time to time, must take and keep minutes of each meeting.
- (b) The minutes must record the business considered at the meeting, any resolution on which a vote is taken and the result of the vote.
- (c) In addition, the minutes of each meeting must record –
  - (i) the names of the members of the Association attending the meeting;
  - (ii) the financial statements or financial report presented at the meeting;
  - (iii) any report of the review or auditor's report on the financial statements or financial report presented at the meeting; and
  - (iv) every disclosure made by a member of the Association of a material personal interest in a matter considered at the meeting.
- (d) The Chair must ensure that the minutes of a meeting are reviewed and signed as correct by the Chair of the meeting.
- (e) When the minutes of a meeting have been signed as correct they are, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, taken to be proof that –
  - (i) The meeting to which the minutes relate was duly convened and held.
  - (ii) The matters recorded as having taken place at the meeting took place as recorded.
  - (iii) Any election or appointment purportedly made at the meeting was validly made.

15. REMOVAL OF A BOARD MEMBER OR MEMBER

- (a) No Board member appointed under clause 7(c) or 7(d) may be removed from office and no member may be expelled from membership of the Association –
  - (i) except for good cause; and
  - (ii) without such Board member or member of the Association as the case may be, being afforded an opportunity to make submissions either in writing, or in person, to the Board.
- (b) Any meeting of the Board convened to consider written submissions or to conduct a hearing in person referred to in sub-clause 15(a)(ii) shall:
  - (i) take place only after at least 14 days' notice has been given by the Chair or Secretary to the person concerned; and shall
  - (ii) be conducted by at least two-thirds of the members for the time being of the Board.
- (c) The procedures to be followed at such a meeting shall be at the discretion of the Board but shall include as a minimum, the right of the Board member or member of the Association to:
  - (i) have notice of any charges or complaints against them; and
  - (ii) legal representation in any case where the Association or the Board has independent legal representation at the hearing.
- (d) The decision to remove a Board member or expel a member of the Association shall be by Simple Resolution.
- (e) Prior to making a decision to remove a Board member or expel a member, the Board may, in its discretion, seek the opinion of the members of the Association at a General Meeting at which the Board member or member concerned shall have a right to be heard.
- (f) The decision to remove a Board member or to expel a member of the Association shall be final and not subject to appeal.
- (g) For avoidance of doubt, this clause 15 has no effect where clauses 11(a), (b), (c) or (d) or 12 (a), (b), or (c) apply.

15A. RESOLVING DISPUTES

- (a) A dispute may be between members of the Association; or between one or more members of the Association and the Association.
- (b) The parties to a dispute shall attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days after the dispute has come to the attention of each party.
- (c) If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute themselves in this time, any party to the dispute may start the grievance procedure by giving written notice to the Secretary of -
  - (i) the parties to the dispute; and
  - (ii) the matters that are the subject of the dispute.
- (d) Within 28 days after this notice, a Board meeting must be convened to consider and determine the dispute, and the -

As altered by resolution at the Annual General Meeting held on 30th April 2019

- (i) Secretary must give each party to the dispute written notice of this Board meeting at least 7 days before the Board meeting is held; and
  - (ii) notice given to each party of the dispute must state when and where the Board meeting is to be held, and give the party to the dispute or representative a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral submissions to the Board about the dispute.
- (e) At the Board meeting at which the dispute is to be considered and determined, the Board must-
- (i) give due consideration to any submissions so made in clause (d) (ii) above; and
  - (ii) determine the dispute.
- (f) The Board must give each party to the dispute written notice of the Board's determination of the dispute, and the reasons for the determination, within 14 days after the Board meeting at which the determination was made.
- (g) If a party to the dispute does not accept the Board's determination of the dispute, the party to the dispute may, within 14 days after receiving notice of the Board's determination of the dispute, give written notice to the Secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator, who -
- (i) may be appointed by agreement between the parties to the dispute; or
  - (ii) if there is no agreement between the parties to the dispute, is appointed by the Board; and
  - (iii) may be a member or former member of the Association but must not have a personal interest in the dispute or matter that is the subject of the mediation; or be biased in favour of or against any party to the mediation.
- (h) The parties to the mediation must attempt in good faith to settle the dispute that is the subject of the mediation.
- (i) Each party to the mediation must give the mediator a written statement of the issues that need to be considered at the mediation at least 5 days before the mediation takes place.
- (j) In conducting the mediation, the mediator must-
- (i) give each party to the mediation every reasonable opportunity to be heard; and
  - (ii) allow each party to the mediation to give due consideration to any written statement given by another party; and
  - (iii) ensure that natural justice is given to the parties to the mediation throughout the mediation process.
- (k) The mediator cannot determine the dispute that is the subject of the mediation.

- (l) The mediation must be confidential, and any information given at the mediation cannot be used in any other proceedings that take place in relation to the dispute that is the subject of the mediation.
- (m) The costs of the mediation are to be paid by the party or parties to the mediation that requested the appointment of the mediator.
- (n) If the mediation results in a decision to suspend or expel a member under clause 15 to be revoked, that revocation does not affect the validity of any decision made at Board or General Meetings during the period of suspension or expulsion.
- (o) If the dispute cannot be resolved under the procedure provided for in this clause, one or more parties to the dispute may make an application to the State Administrative Tribunal to have the dispute determined by that Tribunal.

16. ACCOUNTS

- (a) The Association shall open and maintain one or more accounts in the name of the Association with a financial institution from which all expenditure of the Association is made and into which all funds received by the Association are deposited.
- (b) The Association shall keep proper accounts of the income and expenditure of the Association and the financial statements and balance sheets shall be presented at the Annual General Meeting each year.
- (c) For each financial year, the Board must ensure that the requirements imposed on the Board under Part 5 of the Associations Incorporation Act 2015 relating to the financial statements or financial report of the Association are met.
- (d) Subject to any restrictions imposed at a General Meeting, the Board may approve expenditure on behalf of the Association.

- (b) At least 14 days' written notice shall be given by the Secretary of the proposed alteration, addition or repeal.
- (c) A resolution altering, adding to or repealing the Constitution shall be passed by Special Resolution.

20. INDEMNITY

- (a) The officers of the Association shall from time to time and at all times be kept indemnified from and against all costs, charges, losses, damages and expenses which all or any of them may incur in any actions and proceedings in which all or any of them may be plaintiffs or defendants

As altered by resolution at the Annual General Meeting held on 30th April 2019

PROVIDED THAT such officer or officers acted by direction or with the approval of the Association.

- (b) No member of the Association shall be liable for the acts, receipts, deeds, neglects or defaults of any other member of the Association, but only for their own acts, receipts, deeds, neglects and defaults alone. Any person employed by the Association shall for the purpose of this rule be deemed a member of the Association.

21. INTERPRETATION

Should any question arise as to the interpretation of these rules or any of them such question shall be decided by the Board whose decision shall be final and binding and PROVIDED THAT the Board may by resolution refer the question to a Barrister or Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Western Australia for an opinion which opinion shall be final and binding upon the Board.

22. RULES AND RESOLUTIONS BINDING ON MEMBERS

All members of the Association shall be bound by this Constitution and the rules and by-laws of the Board. All resolutions passed by the Association at a General Meeting shall be binding on all members of the Association whether or not they be present or not at the meeting at which such resolution is passed.

23. WINDING-UP

- (a) The Association shall not be wound up voluntarily unless the Association is solvent.
- (b) A resolution to wind up the Association shall be passed by Special Resolution.
- (c) The Secretary shall cause a copy of the resolution made according to paragraph (b) to be lodged with the Commissioner of Corporate Affairs within 14 days of the passing of the resolution.
- (d) If upon the winding up of the Association there remains after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities of the Association and the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up of the Association any property, this property shall not be distributed among the members of the Association, or former members of the Association, but shall be given or transferred to another association incorporated under the Act which has similar objects and which is not carried out for the purposes of profit or gain to its individual members, and which association shall be determined by resolution of the members of the Association.
- (e) Insofar as effect cannot be given to the above provisions, the dissolution of the Association and distribution of its assets shall be determined by a judge of the Supreme Court of Western Australia.
